

American Plum, Native to Michigan. 20 – 25' shrub. Blooms April-May producing yellow to reddish fruit in the fall. Shade-intolerant. Prefers disturbed, open sites, edges of woods and particularly stream floodplains. Loam to sandy sites. Attractive ornamental. Relatively slow growing and short lived.

| Quantity | 5 | 10 | 25 | 50 | 100 |
|--------------------|---------|---------|---------|---------|----------|
| American Plum 1-2' | $10.00 | $18.00 | $42.00 | $78.00 | $147.00 |